

Interview Questions for DPC Composer-In-Residence

Thank you for your interest in becoming a DPC composer-in-residence. Please complete each question that follows. Some questions will be brief; others will require a longer answer.

1. What is your name?
2. What is your address?
3. What is your email?
4. What is your phone number?
5. How long have you lived in Middle Tennessee? Are you from somewhere else originally? Where?
6. Are you employed? Where?
7. What is your highest educational degree and from where? If you are presently a student, please describe where and what you study.

8. Please provide a personal mission statement regarding yourself and your work. What are you striving for as a composer? How and/or why? What sparked your interest in music at DPC? Maybe this is one sentence, maybe it is several. Please do not exceed a paragraph in length.

9. What, from your life/spiritual journey, might inform your compositions?

10. What makes you interested in composing music for a liturgical purpose?

15. How did you hear about this program and/or DPC?

16. Who, if anyone, is a friend at DPC (list no more than three)?

17. What questions do you have about the CiR program and/or its description?

18. What questions do you have for the Worship & Arts committee or DPC as a whole?